Overview

China Debut: New Visions for a New Audience took place at the Hongyi Jiuzhou International Culture and Art Centre from 11 March to 14 April 2026.

The exhibition brought together 56 artists from different countries, presenting works in painting, sculpture, photography, and mixed media across 2000 square meters. The project positioned contemporary art as a cross-cultural connector, featuring a diverse range of artists influenced by both heritage and individual experience. By facilitating a dialogue between new and veteran creators, the initiative demonstrated how varied viewpoints can cultivate deeper empathy and mutual understanding.

Significance & Impact

In collaboration with Pashmin Art, this exhibition upheld the institute's 35-year legacy of fostering artistic dialogue between the East and West. New Visions for a New Audience acted as more than a global creative showcase; it functioned as a nexus for identity, memory, and imagination. By inhabiting this shared space, visitors were encouraged to embrace fresh perspectives and witness firsthand how art transcends cultural divides to forge lasting connections
